The mission of Join Hands ESL is to empower the people of East St. Louis, to walk in solidarity with those we serve, showing love and compassion to those in need, affirming and reflecting the beauty and potential of each individual. We build personal relationships with children and families through our youth programming, mentoring programs and the Ubuntu Center for Peace.

We prioritize and support through our programs the pursuit of education as a pathway out of poverty.

Please return form and payment by Friday, June 28 to:
